1. We read in Luke 19:10, how Jesus came to seek and to save that which has been lost.” Do you remember a time that you had something or someone that was lost. Can you relate to the story of the Lost Sheep and the Lost Coin. What did you do to find that something or someone?
2. Can you relate to the rejoicing of the return? Is it easy to believe there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over Every. Single. One. who returns to Him?
3. In The Parable of the Prodigal Son, do you relate to the Prodigal Son, who took for granted the Father’s love and had to go far and wide until he finally returns, or to the Older Son, who has lived a very responsible life living inside the lines and feels gyped, or possibly, the Father, who was moved with compassion and came running to him and fully celebrates the return?
4. Can you think of a time that you were “hungry,” but tried to fill it up with other things? Do you have a story of being fully satiated where you experienced the “fatted calf” type of being satiated or loved in such a way?
5. In The Parable of the Good Samaritan, do you have any personal story that relates to the robbed man left on the side of the road or to those who went to the other side of the road to pass him or to the Samaritan “who was deeply moved with compassion and mercy?” Even just on a small scale?
6. In Luke 10:27, we read by loving God with all our heart and all our soul and your neighbor as yourself, we will live by “habitually” practicing this. Is this habitual or can you think of a time where it was habitual?
7. Is there any revelation or greater understanding that you have of the Father’s love for you?
